It was released on 21 May 2015 to positive reviews from critics. The film was dubbed in Hindi as Asitva in 2018. Plot Rajesh, a plastic surgeon is a rich young man. He is a popular personality in his profession and has won many accolades. His father Krishnam Raju, a retired IPS, and mother Srilakshmi are very proud of him. The story revolves around his life. A disease, which is slowly killing thousands of students, affects several children in his school. Rajesh comes to know about it and many other cases of the disease, and also the success rate of the treatment. He has a personal tragedy to deal with when his closest friend Shyam, whose sister is suffering from this disease, commits suicide. On further investigation, he finds that the reason for his friend's suicide is the negligence of the school administration. He realises that the disease is not a legal problem, but a social problem. He then takes up the cause of the students. He calls all his friends from medical college and they respond to his call and start work in his school. He makes a research team consisting of Bhuvaneshwari, a chemist, Srimidhi, a microbiologist, Rajashri, a dermatologist and Hemalatha, a nurse. They find that the disease is contagious. A scientist couple, Ramanujam and Manju tell Rajesh that the government and society are responsible for it. Ramanujam is also critical of the school administration and the director. To make the matter worse, the director Ramani, is a minister and the head of the government. The duo advise Rajesh to approach the Hon'ble Prime Minister, Mr. Naidu for help. He approaches him and is successful in getting a meeting. Rajesh first gets a meeting with the PM in which he presents his idea and requests for help. He is rejected by the PM. Rajesh feels helpless and calls a lady journalist who writes a newspaper that has a lot of influence. Rajesh along with his team approach her and explain their plan to her. The lady journalist decides to write the story. She writes it and the newspaper publishes the news. The government's attention is drawn and the minister called Rajesh to explain the situation to him. Rajesh requests to his team to provide an official statement that is very disturbing for him and the minister. The statement is written and distributed by Rajesh's team to all the 82157476af
